PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Department: Lieutenant Governor

HB Section(s): 12.030

Program Name: MO Humanities Council Trust Programs Spending Authority

Program is found in the following core budget(s): Missouri Humanities Council

1a. What strategic priority does this program address?

The Missouri Humanities Council Trust Program was transferred to the Missouri Lieutenant Governor's Office budget in FY2020. Their budget and performance measures can be found in the Lieutenant Governor's budget.

1b. What does this program do?

- The Missouri Humanities Council (MHC) uses the Trust funds to bolster local economic development in rural and urban communities through cultural heritage and regional public history and interpretive projects to conduct workshops benefitting Missouri veterans and their families, and to enhance local communities by funding humanities-based programs, projects, and events through an extensive community grants program.
- The MHC encourages and supports humanities-related public outreach programming, lecture series, forums, and publications, festivals and living history venues, reading programs for underserved communities, and commemorative exhibits highlighting the rich heritage of Missouri. MHC offers in person activities and produces digital humanities content such as documentaries, videos, and podcasts.
- To accomplish these activities, the MHC regularly partners with numerous statewide, regional, and local civic and community organizations, educational institutions, and governmental agencies. MHC is a nonprofit organization whose mission is to enrich lives and strengthen communities by connecting Missourians to the people, places, and ideas that shape our society.

2a. Provide an activity measure(s) for the program.
